

MA Group - Magnaghi Aeronautica Group is Top Employer 2022.

Naples, 20 January 2022 - The Top Employers certification recognizes the values, ethics, integrity and continuous pursuit of excellence and innovation of the Ma Group organization.

Top Employer certification is an ambitious goal that rewards the work done in the company, to continue building and investing in what are considered the cornerstones of MA Group: communication, training, engagement, safety at work, attention to diversity, support for the communities in which it operates. company on Italian sites. The audit path that led to the certification recognizes the excellence in strategies aimed at the well-being of people, the improvement of the working environment and greater integration with the territory.

Specifically, MA Group was awarded in the following areas:

- STEER: Business & People Strategy and Leadership;
- SHAPE: Organization, digitalization of human resources and work environment;
- DEVELOP: Performance, careers and training;
- ENGAGE: Well-being, commitment and recognition;
- UNITE: Values, ethics and integrity, inclusion, sustainability.

"Certification is the beginning of a path that proceeds in line with our corporate values and on which we want to continue to build and invest. It represents a new stage in the path undertaken by the Group to achieve the objectives of the 2022-2026 business plan. For this reason, being recognized as Top Employer makes us proud and above all confirms the validity of a strategy that puts our people at the center, even more so in a period like the one we have lived and are experiencing, characterized by difficult situations and challenges. unforeseen events where the health and safety of our employees has been a priority for us right from the start "comments the Group's Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Paolo Graziano.

The Top Employers 2022 certification recognizes ethics, integrity and the continuous pursuit of excellence and innovation in human resource management. For MA Group it is a new challenge, it will be necessary to commit to maintain the high levels achieved and indeed, to aim for the International Top Employer certification, which will involve all the companies of the Group in the United States, Brazil and the United Kingdom.